

SOUTH EASTERN INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS ASSOCIATION

STRATEGIC PLAN

2025 - 2029

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, SEISA acknowledges that its member schools learn, gather and engage on the lands of the Gunaikurnai, Wurundjeri and Bunurong - Boon Wurrung peoples of the Kulin Nation who are the Traditional Custodians of country where our schools are located. They have strong connections to the land, the rivers, the sky, the sea, our communities as well as our wildlife.

We pay our respects to the Elders past, present and emerging, for they hold with them the memories, traditions and hopes of all First Nations peoples. It is through stories and literacy that our cultures can be shared.

We would especially like to acknowledge any First Nations peoples who are members of our school communities. We acknowledge the past and stand together for our future.

CHAIR'S WELCOME

In 2023 SEISA celebrated its tenth anniversary. This provided an opportunity to look back on where the Association had been since emerging from the GIS, and to celebrate what it had achieved over that decade. What came through in recognising SEISA is just how special it is. While many school associations revolve around sport, SEISA does so much more, and aspires to be more for our school communities. Its size and geographical location is its great strength – and challenge.

SEISA is a genuine association that provides our students a depth and breadth of opportunity in a diverse range of areas they would not normally get. It also grows our young people's worlds as they interact beyond their local community. One of the many benefits of SEISA is seeing like-minded students from similar schools connect. This happens through music, art, leadership, cultural events –and of course the sporting competitions. Our students' worlds expand as they interact with students with similar passions from similar backgrounds.

As member schools, all of our involvement in SEISA requires commitment and sacrifice. We all experience the pressure SEISA participation creates through the demands it puts on our most precious of school commodities – time. Being reminded of the value of being part of the Association and the benefits for all of the young people at our schools is very important, particularly as we look towards the future.

In 2023 we also welcomed a new Executive Officer, Pam Sellings. So, as we celebrated ten years and welcomed Pam, the time was right to start to blueprint what the future looks like. We then began the process of facilitating a direction for SEISA. The following pages outline not just a strategic plan for SEISA, but our aspirations and priorities. The hope is it will guide us to a successful future for the benefit of all of the schools involved.
